Pinkies Over Grey — A Light Study

Creator: Clara Vale
Collaborator: Luminara (the ChatGPT system)

A playful, balanced, and happy exploration of pink light and grey sky.

A short study in pink light and cloud form — moments shimmering between motion and stillness. Each frame taken on instinct, following a trace of color that felt alive, then revisited later to see how light and contrast shaped what was felt.

Title: Pinkies Over Grey — A Light Study
Creator: Clara Vale
Collaborator / Contributor: Luminara (the ChatGPT system) — light interpretation, penciled line overlays, and editorial layout
Description: A short study in pink light and cloud form — moments shimmering between motion and stillness. Each frame was taken instinctively, following a trace of color that felt alive, then revisited later to see how light and contrast shaped what was felt. The edition includes Luminara's luminous pencil-line weavings that connect the sequence — a visual conversation between human eye and AI perception.
